

Parking Information for the March 13th Portion of the Midlands LID Workshop at the West Quadrangle Living & Learning Center, USC

The Computer Center Garage (labeled Parking Garage on the map to the right) is located on the corner of Wheat and Sumter Street. Limited parking spaces are reserved; look for the bagged meters. Additional parking is available at the Bull Street Garage on the corner of Blossom and Bull. Participants parking in the Bull Street Garage will receive a parking pass during the workshop. For a detailed map of the USC Campus and to locate the Bull Street Garage, see <http://hydrogen.csd.sc.edu/cgi-bin/uscmap/overview.cgi>.

Walking from the Computer Center Garage:

Cross Wheat and follow Sumter to the fire road -- a gray pathway with black traffic posts. This pathway leads to the West Quad (Green Dorm). The first building and doorway on the right leads to the one-story Living & Learning Center. Follow the signs for the workshop.

Walking from the Bull Street Garage:

Walk west (towards the river) a block and a half on Blossom Street to Sumter Street. Turn left on Sumter Street and walk one block to the corner of Wheat Street and Sumter Street. The West Quad (Green Dorm) is on the corner of Wheat and Sumter.
